I request an appeal of the Wilkes Community College Suspension Policy based on the following reason(s). I have attached supporting documentation if needed and have included my plan for improving my academic performance. I understand this must be included in order to be considered.

The decision of the academic appeals committee is final.

- 1. Provide a clear and concise explanation of the events/circumstances that were detrimental to your academic performance during the last semester/term enrolled and previous semesters/terms in which your GPA was below 2.0 and how your academic performance was affected by this.

- 2. Clarify how the events/circumstances have been resolved.

- 3. Describe your plans for ensuring satisfactory academic performance in the coming academic semester/term.

If your appeal is approved, you will be allowed to register and attend classes, but you will remain on academic probation. If your appeal is denied, you will not be allowed to enroll at Wilkes Community College for one semester.
