

How to Resolve a Scheduling Conflict

While selecting courses to add to your schedule, you may select a course that overlaps with another course you selected. You can select another section for either of the courses that overlap directly from your schedule by following the steps below.

1. Click on View other sections on either of the courses that overlap. This will cause the other sections to appear on your schedule, so you can see which sections fit into your schedule.

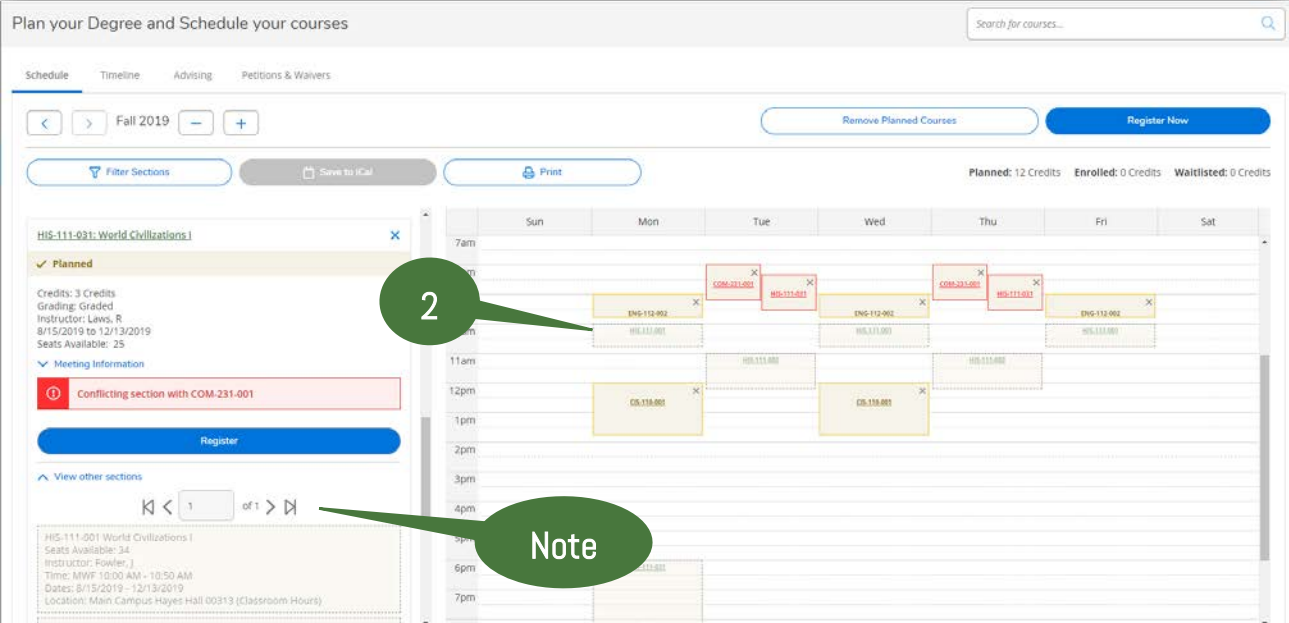

The screenshot shows a web interface for planning a degree schedule. At the top, it says "Plan your Degree and Schedule your courses" with a search bar. Below are navigation tabs for "Schedule", "Timeline", "Advising", and "Petitions & Waivers". The current semester is "Fall 2019". There are buttons for "Remove Planned Courses" and "Register Now".

On the left, there are filters for "Filter Sections", "Save to iCal", and "Print". A "Planned" section for "HIS-111-031: World Civilizations I" is shown with details: Credits: 3 Credits, Grading: Graded, Instructor: Laws, R, 8/15/2019 to 12/15/2019, Seats Available: 25. A red warning icon indicates a "Conflicting section with COM-231-001". A green callout bubble with the number "1" points to the "View other sections" link below the conflict message.

The main area is a grid showing the weekly schedule from 7am to 8pm. The grid has columns for Sun, Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, and Sat. Several courses are plotted as colored blocks with 'X' marks indicating conflicts. For example, HIS-111-031 is shown on Tue, Wed, and Thu from 8am to 10am. COM-231-001 is shown on Tue, Wed, and Thu from 12pm to 2pm. HIS-111-031 is also shown on Mon, Wed, and Fri from 12pm to 2pm.

2. Click on the section that fits in your schedule.

Note: There may be more than one page of sections, so you will need to advance to the next page to view the rest of the sections.
